GREENVILLE

Religious Service at Shetucket Mill on Thursday Noon—Local Teachers at Convention—Other Mention.

Mrs. Warren Holliday has returned to Brooklyn, N. Y., after visiting local relatives.

John Gleason, who has worked in New London, has returned to Conklin's bakery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Osborne have returned, after several weeks' visit in Worcester, Mass.

Clifford Kniffin of South Beach, Ct., was the recent guest of his brother, Sidney Kniffin, in Greenville.

Sidney Kniffin bagged ten gray squirrels and two rabbits on a hunting trip in Barabshville a few days ago.

John Mills of Amesbury, Mass., is visiting former friends in town constantly. He is now engaged in the real estate business.

Principal Clifford H. Hobson left on Thursday afternoon for Hartford to attend the teachers' convention. Others of the teachers will also be present, and the grammar school will be closed today.

Their regular semi-monthly whist was held by St. Anne's society in the basement of St. Mary's church Tuesday evening, there being 14 tables played.
The prizes were won by Joseph E. Porte-lance and Miss Rose Gadout.

A religious service of about twenty minutes was held in front of the war-house of the Shetucket mill at 12:25
Thursday noon. Rev. P. O. Cunningham gave two selections on the cornet, and Mr. A. H. Hering sang. The service was much appreciated by the 200 people present. In the absence of Dr.
Hough, Rev. P. O. Cunningham addressed the people briefly and held their closest attention.

A Polish boy named Iebitski, about 15 years old, was running along the railroad track Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock when he was taken with severe cramps, probably as the result of indigestion, and fell headlong.
Station Agent Williams received him and took him to the railroad station, where, after medical attention, the boy recovered somewhat and was taken home in an express wagon. He works at the cotton mill.

John A. Morgan Secures Contract.
Druggist John A. Morgan of North Main street was awarded and filled Thursday the contract for the year's stationery supplies of the Greenville school district. Only Greenville merchants were allowed to bid, Mr. Morgan's figures being $71.95, the next two being $96 and $97.50. The supply committee is John T. Sullivan, John Collins and Frank O. Duffey.

Helping Hands Supper.
The Helping Hands of the Spiritual Academy opened their supper season Thursday night at the Academy on Park street, having a large number present who enjoyed the appetizing baked-bean supper served, and were glad the season for these pleasant social evenings began again. The efficient committee in charge included Mrs. W. P. Bogue, Mrs. E. M. Whitney, Mrs. Fannie Polaten, Mrs. A. P.
Blinn and Mrs. Gertrude Toftill.
There was a handsome prize cake awarded during the evening, being taken by Mrs. Andrew Hagberg.

No One Was Injured.
On Thursday a guy rope on a floor derick at the Free Academy building broke, causing a stone to fall to the ground. No one was injured, contrary to report, none of the workmen being even scratched, and the stone was not broken.

Teachers at Convention.
The Bridge district school has a holiday today. The teachers are attending the state convention, some going to the meetings in Hartford and some in New Haven.

FUNERAL.

Miss Caroline McCarty.
On Thursday afternoon the funeral of Miss Caroline McCarty was held from her home in Robbins court, at which many relatives and friends were present. Rev. Neilson Poe Carey, rector of Christ Episcopal church, conducted the services. There were handsome floral tributes. The bearers were Frederick E. Tracy, M. A. Barber, C.
H. Lefterwing and John Gregson.
Burial was in the Oak Hill cemetery, where a committal service was read.
Henry Allen & Son had charge of the arrangements.

ELKS WILL BUY HOUSE

Almost Anonymous Decision of Norwich Lodge—Will Take It Over in the Spring—Judge Ayling Reports On National Convention.

FORECAST FOR TODAY.

Norwich lodge, No. 430, B. P. O. E., voted almost unanimously at its meeting Thursday night in Pythian hall to purchase the William C. Osmond residence and lot on Main street, between the postoffice, for an Elks' building and clubhouse. The terms of the sale are not stated, but the Elks will not take possession until spring and meanwhile committees will be appointed to consider alterations in the building to be made for the purpose.

The question of the decision on this matter coming up at this meeting brought out a large majority of the 300 members, among whom a very enthusiastic spirit for acquiring the property was shown, and it was felt that this opportunity for securing such a fine building and location for the lodge home could not be allowed to pass, so that when they were ready for a sale, after the matter had been presented, there were only a few bal-

ELECTED PRESIDENT

At Annual Business Meeting of Baptist Brotherhood at State Convention.

At 1:30 p. m., Wednesday, the state Baptist Brotherhood met for their annual business meeting at Mystic. A permanent constitution was adopted and officers for the ensuing year elected. The following were chosen: President, Rev. W. T. Thayer, Norwich; vice president, Rev. G. B. Marston, Stonington; secretary, Dr. D.
New London; treasurer, S. K.
Ryan, Middletown.

An executive committee was appointed, consisting of the officers and Rev. W. J. Neely of Danielson and J. Fuller of Hartford.

Baptist leaders will remember that Dr. George P. Whittemore, late of Middletown, was president of the board at its death.

The board of enrollment committee of the convention, which was submitted by Rev. Mr. Marston, showed that the attendance at the Baptist convention was the largest in the history of the institution. He reported that at the afternoon session on Tuesday there was an attendance of over 1,000 people.

Ashford union was represented by 12 pastors and 47 laymen, Fairfield by 12 pastors and 31 laymen, Hartford by 14 pastors and 25 laymen, New Haven by 11 pastors and 51 laymen, New London by 12 pastors and 36 laymen, and Stonington union by 11 pastors and 47 laymen.

Too much cannot be said in praise of those who worked and contributed in providing the meals and lodging for delegates and other visitors to the convention and all the credit for it is due to the members of the church, no one outside the church. The largest meal was served during the convention and accommodations for lodgings were provided for over 400 visitors.
The convention lasted over 20 years and assisting in this matter Tuesday night.
Probably the oldest person attending the convention was John H. 33 years old.
She is just a month older than Rev.
J. P. Brown of New London, who is aged 59.

A religious service of about twenty
minutes was held in front of the war-
house of the Shetucket mill at 12:25
Thursday noon. Rev. P. O. Cunningham and married Miss Hynan, daughter of the late Jeremiah Hynan of this city.

Mr. Hurley had also resided in New London. He is survived by his wife, the child, Mrs. Julia E. O'Connell, K. Donnelly of New London, and his father, who is a special officer in New London.

AUTO OWNERS MUST

COMPLY WITH LAW.

Lights on Both Ends of Cars Must Be Lighted and Police Directed to See That Law is Complied With.

Chief Murphy has given orders to his men to see that the laws requiring lights on both ends of automobiles are strictly enforced, and that there will be a strict enforcement of the law here in that regard.

On Thursday evening while Calvin Swan's car was standing in the street he was approached by Policemen Em-berts and taken to police station, but released until this morning. Mr. Swan declared that he did not understand that the lights must be burning while a car is not in motion.

Napoleon Fournier Injured in Trolley Collision—Other Mention.

The Ladies' Benevolent society of the Taftville Congregational church held their annual meeting, the first session of the season, in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon. President Mrs.
John Eccles presided, and after the reports of the secretary and treasurer were read, showing the affairs of the society to be in excellent condition, these officers were elected: Mrs. John Eccles, president; Mrs. Christopher G.
Lillibridge, vice president; Miss Anna May Beardon, secretary; Mrs. G. W.
Whitelsey, treasurer. This board of management was chosen: Mrs. Frank Hampson, chairman, Mrs. George W.
Waller, Mrs. William Brierly, Mrs.
John E. Brierly, Mrs. J. W. Working, Mrs. Peter Wilson and Mrs. Luther Packer.
The ladies discussed plans for the winter's work, and at their November meeting will start in making comfortable in aid of the United Workers.

A social hour rounded out the afternoon, the large attendance enjoying a refreshment which was prepared by members of last year's executive committee, of which Mrs. Terrence Hanlon was chairman.

Caught Under Pile of Boards.
Viola Jacques, the 13 year old daughter of Mrs. Peter Plant of South A street, was caught beneath a heavy pile of boards that fell on her while playing with a number of other children around the corner of the south side of the village late Wednesday afternoon.

Her leg at her ankle was crushed by the heavy weight, and she was kept in her painful position for some time before her excited playmates summoned help. She was attended by Dr.
George Thompson. The girl was about to make a rescue when the boards toppled over. The injury was an extremely painful one.
